THE MORMONS.

Growing in Power and Prosperity, and Defying the Laws of the United States.

Judge C. C. Goodwin in the North American.

With the death of Brigham Young, the American leadership of the Mormons ceased. Taylor is an Englishman, Cannon is an Englishman, and almost all the leaders are of foreign birth. The Mormon church is a foreign kingdom, hostile in all its features to a republican form of government; it is guided and controlled by foreigners, and depends upon foreigners and the children of foreigners for future expansion and power. It is absolutely un-American in all its attributes.

It is a theocracy managed by a plebian aristocracy, for intellectually the whole organization is of low order. Now in addition to church ties, there are family ties to hold this people in unity. The organization is fanaticism and superstition solidified. It numbers probably 150,000 souls, and is increasing as fast as polygamy and immigration can accomplish the result. It is swiftly peopling all the agricultural valleys of our richest Territories, and its leaders boldly proclaim their intention to subjugate the whole Union and bring it under their rule. They exalt their church over the State; contemn all laws which conflict with any tenet of their creed; are as careless of their oaths as a Chinaman, and bear as little allegiance to the United States Government as do the Chinese. The control of the chiefs, as in Mohammedan countries, is absolute; their organization superb; the discipline of the people perfect. From tithes, $1,000,000 annually is collected with which to strengthen their position; they are a hardy race, indifferent to hardships and privations; already they are such a power that demagogues in their own country, other demagogues in Congress, and great moneyed corporations, with their subsidized newspapers, pander to them, and it is plain that this institution, which was jeered at but a few years ago, has now become an absolute terror and menace to the United States.

Scraps of Wisdom.

From Scribner's Magazine.

Very amiable and good-natured are those people who can always have their own way in everything.

It takes two to make a quarrel, and two to keep it going; it only needs one to end it.

Jealousy is simply another name for self-love.

He who is ashamed of his poverty will certainly be arrogant of his wealth.

There is hope for a man as long as he can blush.

The man who feels certain that he will not succeed is seldom mistaken.

There is nothing that strengthens a man's honesty like trusting him; suspect him, and you weaken his faith in himself and in everybody else.

Faults are things that make us all brothers and sisters.

There is nothing that has so much authority, and is entitled to so little, as custom. It rules all the fools with a rod of iron, and threatens even the wise.

The difference between being perfect and constanly trying to be so, is the difference between an angel in heaven and a good man on earth.

How can we expect to know our neighbor's character, when he doesn't know it himself?

Talk is cheap, but a good example costs something.

The boy whose highest ambition is to equal his father, seldom amounts to anything.

A Kentucky Robin Roost.

From the Glasgow Times.

Down near old Rocky Hill, one mile from Settle's mill, on the farm of Presley Smith, is a robin's roost that equals the pigeon roost of olden times. A cedar thicket of about sixty acres furnishes the birds a lodging place. About sundown every evening constant streams from every direction pour into the grove, and almost obscure the heavens in their flight. Night finds almost every bush in the thicket bending with its red-breasted load. For the past few weeks lovers of sport for miles around have visited the place, and every night the thicket is illuminated with the torches of men with clubs and sacks gathering the feathery harvest. Mr. Smith has killed 2,000 and hundreds are carried away every night, but they don't seem to decrease; there are millions of them. Large quantities of them have been sold in town. They are very fat and make, when well cooked, a dish good enough for anybody.

Dreams That Came True.

From the London Globe.

Bishop Hall relates a curious story of a cure effected by means of a dream; a cripple dreaming that he bathed in a certain well in Cornwall and was restored to health. Acting on this visionary prescription, he recovered the use of his limbs. The bishop attributes this dream to "a good angel." Probably, as Lord Byron says of prophecies, people note the fulfillments of dreams and forget the failures—pass over the ninety-nine baseless visions, but record the hundredth that happens to be verified.

Authors, artists and musicians have carried on their work in their dreams, sometimes with more success than in their waking hours. Tartina, an Italian composer, dreamt that he heard a fiend perform an elaborate solo on the violin. He attempted to reproduce it when awake; but, though his "Devil's Sonata" is ranked among his finest productions, the composer declared that it was so inferior to the music of his dream that he could have broken his instrument with vexation at his failure to reproduce that beautiful melody. Condorcet and Franklin worked out elaborate calculations in their sleep, and remembered them on awaking. Lord Thurlow is said to have composed part of a Latin poem in a dream; and Sir J. Herschell has left a verse which occurred to him in similar circumstances. Goethe records that his dreams often assisted him in his compositions.

Hanging By His Hair for 60 Miles.

Being carried sixty miles an hour by the hair of one's head is certainly not a comfortable way of traveling. But it was the experience, recently, of a madman who attempted to commit suicide by jumping from a car of the Midland express train, from London to Leicester, England. His father and a woman, who were the only other occupants of the carriage, were unable to control him. Throwing open the door, he leaped from the carriage. Fortunately his father caught hold of his hair and the coat collar. In this way the son was held suspended for some time, the train meanwhile going at sixty miles an hour. As they approached Market Harborough the terrible state of things was noticed, and the train stopped. The father was thoroughly exhausted by the struggle, and placed his son in the charge of officials who bound and guarded him until he could be placed in an asylum.

"SWIPES" IN MAINE.

Neal Dow denies that the Maine liquor law has been a failure. He declares that the law has extinguished fully nineteen-twentieths of the rum trade in Maine. The statement made in the newspapers that there are more saloons in Portland now than ever, he says is untrue, and that in the old time there were many establishments in Portland, any one of which sold more liquor than is now sold by all the existing saloons put together. The venerable apostle of temperance gives this interesting description of the ways in which liquor is retailed in Maine:

"'Drinking saloons;' what do people understand by that phrase? Now, there is not one drinking saloon in Portland, in the most universally accepted meaning of that term. We have some low, secret rum dens in the lowest part of the city. Their stock of liquors generally consist of a half pint, or possibly a pint bottle of rum and one of whiskey in each coat pocket of the rumseller. Or the stock may be in half a dozen half-pint bottles hidden in the ash hole under the cooking stove oven; or it may be in a pitcher of whiskey or a sprinkling pot of beer, standing over a tub of dirty water, into which both are hastily 'dumped' on the entrance of the officers, or if the officers are seen in streets; or it may be even a barrel of beer hidden under the floor of a pig-pen or in a manure heap, or buried in the earthen cellar, or built into the house under the stairs; or a bottle or jug may be hidden in a bed, or under the floor, the trap being under the bed; or the stock may be a pint bottle of whiskey and one of rum suspended to the waist of the rumselling woman, beneath the outer skirt. All these dodges have been resorted to, and many others, to conceal the liquors, and that is the character of the 'saloons' in Portland."

One thing Neal Dow fails to explain, and that is the astonishing increase in the percentage of crime in Maine since the adoption of prohibitory liquor laws. In the last thirty years crime has increased 379 per cent., according to the official figures, while the population has increased only 14 per cent. It is certain that prohibition does not decrease crime.

NO BETTER THAN THE MINISTERS.

We publish in another column the full text of the Lottery bill which has been passed in both branches of the Legislature and awaits the Governor's signature. It is simply a lottery scheme under another name. The objects of the bill are good, and the moral sense of the people would probably not be greatly shocked by the establishment of a State lottery, although such a lottery would certainly give encouragement to that gambling spirit which is the bane of all legitimate business on this coast. A State lottery would do more moral injury than would be counterbalanced by its cash benefits to the State. In fact, there should be no support to any measure that must work a moral injury to the people. The only ground on which a lottery can be defended is the same on which all other forms of gambling are defended.

The legislators who have given their assent to this bill are morally no better than the priests, and the ministers, and the Sunday school superintendents, and the church members, who manage, or direct, or allow, the lotteries and the grab-bags in church fairs.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Forepaugh, the showman, has offered a prize of $10,000 for the handsomest woman in the land. The offer remains open until March 31. Competitors need only send their photographs. Said Forepaugh's agent to a reporter the other day: "It would not surprise me to receive photographs from Vassar College. The girls are so vain, you know. It's a natural female weakness. Every girl thinks she is pretty. I suppose you know that we want this lovely woman to appear in our Oriental street pageant dressed as a princess. It don't matter if she has big feet or is crazy, so that she has a pretty face. It is a question of beauty, not brains. Why, such a woman, whoever she is, will make her fortune. Already have two prominent photographers offered to pay heavy royalties for selling her pictures, but we will attend to that ourselves and pocket the money."

There is not a single iron sailing ship afloat which carries the American flag. Our sailing ships are entirely of wood, and the days of wooden ships have passed. We build no iron ships, and our laws prohibit the purchase of iron ships abroad. Iron ships carry more cargo and get higher rates of freight than wooden ships. Most of the exports from this country are carried away in iron ships sailing under foreign flags. America has been for years steadily decreasing in tonnage, while the merchant fleets of other nations have grown. The American fleet is likely to disappear entirely from the ocean, unless the heavy home taxation on shipping is lightened, or taken off altogether.

One Dr. Heath recently read a paper on potatoes as food, before the Farmers' Club in Cooper Institute. He thought potatoes were calculated, after the lapse of a few generations, to dwarf, mentally and physically. People who lived upon potatoes were generally obese. An Irish member considered this a reflection upon his race, and defied the doctor to show that Irishmen are obese. Dr. Heath was then asked if he had ever been in Ireland. He rejoined with much heat that he never had, and what was more, he never intended to go there. A gentleman then jumped up and said that he was glad his grandmother was an Irishman. The topic for discussion was then shifted, and no heads were broken.

Another bill for the subjugation of the dissatisfied Irishmen has been introduced in the House of Commons. It is known as the Arms bill, and the following are its principal provisions: It prohibits the possession or carrying of arms except by license; permits the search of a house from sunrise to sunset, and empowers the authorities to prohibit and regulate the importation and sale of arms, dynamite, nitro glycerine and other explosives. The maximum penalty on conviction is three months' imprisonment without labor. The bill remains in force five years. Urgency was voted for the Arms bill by 395 to 37. No Conservative voted in the minority.

The following was the vote in the Senate on the Bullion Tax Penalties Bill, as reported by the Carson Tribune:

Yea—Brumsey, Dayton, Doolin, Fox, Gallahger, Gibson, Haines, King, McConnell, Perley, Thompson, Tolley, Westerfield—13

Nay—Farrell, Hammond, Henderson, Hobart, Kaiser, Meder, Powning, Rockhill, Shepherd, Wheeler, Williams—11,

Senator Schooling favored the bill, but was absent when the final vote was taken.

Minnie Arnold had an unhappy life. She was the daughter of an English Episcopal clergyman. She ran away from home fourteen years ago and married a man who afterwards deserted her. She married again, but found when it was too late, that her second husband was a bigamist. A third time she married, but this husband also proved to be a bigamist. Then she fell in love with a man whom she knew to be married, and in Providence, R. I., the other day, she killed herself in despair.

A wholesale eviction of disaffected tenants has begun in Ireland. In recent evictions at Newton and Hamilton, county Armagh, on the property of Rev. Mr. McGeogh, the women stoned the bailiff and invoked curses on the landlord, while the aged and sick people were carried out and laid on the roadside. The discontent in Ireland is likely to greatly increase.

Sam. Davis, of the Carson Appeal, is now a father in Israel. He became so yesterday. It is not a boy, but the next thing to it, being a boy's sister. Sam. has the congratulations of the press of Nevada. He is now superintendent of a mine—"Baby Mine."—Enterprise.

Congressman Daggett has had printed in the Congressional Record a tremendous speech on the railroad question, in support of the Inter-State Commerce bill and descriptive of railroad rates in Nevada. The speech fills twenty pages of the Record, but was not delivered in the House.

Seth Green says that "an acre of good water can be made to produce as much food (meaning fish) as an acre of land." Certainly there is no reason why any farmer should not have an abundance of fresh fish for his table.

Gov. Kinkead has approved the bill fixing the rate of official advertising by the State. The rate fixed by the bill is $2 50 per square for the first insertion and $1 per square for each subsequent insertion.

The project for a railway tunnel from France to England, under the channel, has not been abandoned. Experiments are being made with a view to determine the best route.

Mining Dividends in the United States.

According to a contemporary, which has published an elaborate tabulated account of the dividends paid by metal mines in the United States to date, the whole amount disbursed to stockholders is $206,000.000, of which nearly $160,000,000 has been paid by California and Nevada mines. The totals are as follows:

	MINES.	AMOUNT.
California	52	$ 21,439,324
Nevada	54	137,598,650
Utah	6	3,965 000

He Didn't Know They Joked.

From the N. Y. Sun.

Persons who are not informed in regard to slang phrases are likely to get into trouble. Jones was at a ball the other evening, and while standing near the door he saw two fashionable young men conversing. As the music struck up for a dance, one turned to the other and asked:

"Do you dawnce the Lawnciers?"

"No," was the reply; "but my sister Frawnces dawnces the Lawnciers and all the fawncey dawnces."

"Oh, you d——d fool!" said Jones, unable to conceal his disgust, and he pulled the fashionable young man's nose.

A quarrel followed, and Jones was arrested and fined $5. It took the judge half an hour to convince Jones that it was a joke.

The Salt Lake Tribune says: Salt Lake is on the eve of a great boom. Several new railroads are soon to center here, the Street Railway Company are extending their line, the Electric Light, Power and Heating Company's works are nearing completion, the Telephone Company is stretching its wires and opening its exchange, large business blocks are contemplated, and dwelling houses innumerable.

Orrin Armstrong, aged 16, was camping out with an Indian Sunday night, in Jackson county, Or. They built a fire at the foot of a tree and went to sleep. The Indian was awakened by a crash, and found that the roots of the tree had burned, the tree had fallen, and Armstrong was crushed to death.

Progress of the Kalloch Murder Trial—The Line of Defense.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 1.

In the trial of young Kalloch, for the murder of Charles De Young, the defense opened to-day. Highton, counsel for the defense, in opening announced his defense to be: First, on the technical ground of the prisoner having been once before placed in jeopardy and discharged, according to the Court records; second, self-defense; third, transitory mania. Counsel expects to prove that, from what had before happened, and the known character of De Young, the prisoner was in a reasonable fear of his life; that on the day of the tragedy he had an interview with a friend of De Young and had made an appointment to meet De Young with a view of stopping the publication of the pamphlet reflecting on prisoner's father, the contract being that in the event of its suppression the elder Kalloch would not prosecute De Young for the attempt on his life; that soon after the prisoner became aware that the pamphlets were being circulated; that he went to the Chronicle office in an agitated state of mind; that he observed the threatening expression of De Young's face and his motion to draw a pistol as he entered, and that De Young drew his pistol and both fired simultaneously. He proposed to vindicate the testimony of Clemetshaw, who was sent to prison for perjury in swearing at the preliminary examination that De Young fired the first shot.

Fees of Doctors.

The fee of doctors is an item that very many persons are interested in just at present. We believe the schedule for visits is $3, which would tax a man confined to his bed for a year, and in need of a daily visit, over $1,000 year for medical attendance alone! And one single bottle of Hop Bitters taken in time would save the $1,000 and all the year's sickness.—Ed.

SENATOR SCHOOLING'S BILL

To Provide For the Preservation of Fish in the Waters of the State.

The People of the State of Nevada, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. It shall not be lawful for any person or persons between the first days of January and June of each year, to catch or kill any river, lake, brook or salmon trout in any of the streams, rivers, lakes or other waters within the State, with any seine, gill net, or any spear, grab hook, weir fence, basket, trap, explosive material, or other implements or substances, or in any other manner except by hook and line; and it shall not be lawful at any time, for any person or persons, to catch or kill such fish in any of the waters of this State by use of traps, gill nets, grab hook, or any poisonous, deleterious of stupefying drug, explosive material or other substance, or catch or have in possession, any fish so caught during the close season, and it shall not be lawful for any person or persons to expose for sale, or to catch or kill for sale; or to catch or kill for salting in any manner whatever, any river, lake, brook or salmon trout, in any river, lake or other waters within this State between the first day of June and the first day of December in each year; and it shall not be lawful for any railway corporation, express company, or other common carriers, or private parties, to ship, or transport for sale, any river, lake, brook or salmon trout, taken from the rivers, lakes, or other waters of this State, during the said season, viz: between the first day of June and the first day of December in each year; provided, however, that nothing in this Act shall be construed to prohibit the taking of fish in private ponds, constructed expressly for the raising of fish by the owner thereof, and provided, further, that any person wanting spawn for the propagation of fish, may take the fish from the spawning beds, or elsewhere during the spawning season; and, provided further, that no person shall catch or kill any fish in any of the waters of this State at any time, by means of giant powder, or any other explosive substance or material, or stupefying or deleterious drug. Any person violating the provisions of this section, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars, nor more than five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail not less than thirty days, nor more than six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the Court, one-half of the fine recovered to be paid to the informer, and one-half to be paid into the School Fund of the State.

SEC. 2. And it is hereby made the duty of the District Attorneys, County Commissioners, Justices of the Peace, and Sheriffs and their deputies, upon receiving reliable information of any violations of the provisions of this Act, to make complaint against the parties, and any of the peace officers named in this section, who shall neglect or fail to make complaint against parties violating any of the provisions of this Act, after having received reliable information of such violation, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and subject to the penalties prescribed in Section 1 of this Act.

SEC. 3. Any person or persons, company, corporation, or association, owning, controlling or managing any canal, artificial water course or irrigating ditch, leading from any stream, river or lake in this State, containing fish, shall place and keep in repair, at the head or inlet of such canal, artificial watercourse or irrigating ditch, a wire screen with a mesh not larger than one-fourth of an inch; provided, that any canal or artificial water course leading into any reservoir, then, in that case, said wire screen may be placed at the outlet or outlets of said reservoir.

THE LOTTERY SCHEME.

"An Act to Aid the Nevada Benevolent Association in Providing Means for the Care and Maintenance of the Insane of Nevada, and for Other Charitable Purposes."

The people of the State of Nevada, represented in the Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. It shall be lawful for the Nevada Benevolent Association of the State of Nevada to give not exceeding five public entertainments or concerts, to sell tickets of admission to the same; to distribute among the holders of such tickets, personal property, real estate, things in action, demands or other valuables, and to regulate the distribution of all such property or gifts by raffle or other schemes of like character; provided, that such entertainment or gift concert, and each of them, shall be managed and controlled in all respects by a Board of Managers, to be designated by the Board of Trustees of said Association, which said Board of Managers shall not exceed fifteen in number; and further provided, that $50,000 in gold coin shall be paid into the State Treasury, as aforesaid, upon the termination and conclusion of each of said entertainments or concerts.

SEC. 2. The said Association is hereby required to make, execute and deliver to the State of Nevada, a sufficient bond, to be approved by the Governor, in the sum of $50,000 in gold coin, conditioned that said Association will, well and truly, pay into the Treasury of the State, the sum of not less than $50,000 in gold coin at the close of each of the entertainments or concerts provided for in Section 1 of this Act; provided, the Governor shall have power to require, and take new or additional bonds from said Association, conditioned as aforesaid, at any time or times it may be deemed advisable by him.

SEC. 3. All moneys coming into the State Treasury from the sources provided for in this Act shall be, and the same are hereby set apart, and shall constitute a special fund to be known as the Insane and Chaitable Fund, and the State Treasurer shall report to the Governor the amount received from said sources from time to time, and the Governor shall report the same to the next Legislature.

SEC. 4. An Act entitled "An Act to prohibit lotteries," approved March 7th, 1873, and all other Acts and parts of Acts in conflict with this Act, are hereby repealed.

Items From the Truckee "Republican."

E. J. Dyer, who had his hand mashed between two drawheads while coupling cars in the yard some weeks ago, has so far recovered as to resume work.

The traveling menagerie which visited Truckee some time ago lost a lynx at Dutch Flat, and offered a reward of $20 for his capture. Half of the population of the town have set traps to catch him.

We understand that the Pacific Lumber & Wood Co. intend to start their mill and logging camps about the 15th of this month if it does not storm before that time.

The plaza is entirely free from snow, and another week's good weather will dry up the ground. The indications are that we will have an early spring, and the logging and mill men are jubilant.

Railroaders report that the smash-up ot the Summit last Thursday night was one of the worst wrecks which ever occurred on this road. The engine was thrown across the track and entirely demolished, and the tender was turned clear around. The engineer and fireman had a miraculous escape, and neither one of them can explain how they ever got out without being killed. The remains of the engine were taken to Sacramento, but it can never be rebuilt.

Shooting Affray in Arizona.

TUCSON, March 1.

A Wilcox special to the Star says: A man by the name of Collins got into an altercation with some tramps. Collins shot one of them, when another of the gang shot Collins. The tramp was shot through the body and Collins through the neck. Both are still alive. The balance of the gang of tramps are under arrest and confined in a box car.

A special from Tombstone says: Henry H. Kelly was shot and seriously wounded this morning by Steve McAllister.

THE CHURCH ENTERTAINMENT.

The Most Successful Affair of the Kind Ever Given in Reno.

The entertainment given by the ladies of Trinity Church last evening was a splendid success in every respect. The programme was carried out exactly as published, and was unmarred by either halt or break. The evening was opened by an overture by the Reno Quadrille Band, who acquitted themselves with a great deal of credit. Then followed a most appropriate double quartette which was excellently given by Misses Jamison and May Benham as sopranos, Mrs. Thyes and Miss May Cara as altos, Messrs. Fassett and Jose as tenors, and Mr. Scovill as bass.

Mother Goose came next in order. This most laughable and pleasing performance was done in pantomime, the music and theme being given by a double quartette at the piano. The young ladies engaged were all members of Bishop Whitaker's school, and gave clear evidence of the drill and care which characterizes that institution. Their costumes were remarkably appropriate and pretty. The ladies who had charge of them certainly deserve great credit for their sagacity in the selection of characters, and the young ladies as certainly merit all the applause bestowed upon them. Mother Goose herself was admirable. Query: Who was she?

The reading of "Maclaine's Child" by Mrs. Jenvey was in that lady's usual most felicitious style. It was clearly, accurately, faultlessly delivered. She is always popular before a Reno audience.

The "Fan Brigade" came next. This was a most graceful and unique performance. The costumes were in accordance with the fashions of two hundred years ago, and were excellent. The performers were exceptionally easy, graceful and exact in their movements. The whole drill was under the direction of Miss Carlin and Mrs. Wm. Walker. The young ladies who took part were Gertie Shoemaker, Persia Lemmons, Hattie Higgins, Zoe Clarke, Cora Manning, Nettie Lewis, Lottie Fletcher and Iva Simpson. Following this was a solo, "O Fair Dove," by Mr. Smith. This is a very pretty song, and was well done by the soloist. "Cups and Saucers" was next given. This is a satirical and musical operetta, burlesquing the late rage for old china. It was most admirably done by Mina Atchinson, Mamie Ballard and Janie Josburg, of Bishop Whitaker's school.

A recitation by Wm. Walker was the next in order. It was most excellently done. It was listened to with marked and merited attention. The "Umbrella Brigade" was splendidly gotten up. To Mrs. Leete the credit of this is due. The boys who commposed the Brigade were: Chas. Dixon, Frank Lee, Hiram Remington, Chas Pollard, Aug. Schaeffer, Aug. Knust, Ralph Hussey, Henry Cutting, Ben. Leete. A lovely mixed quartette entitled "Sunrise" was given in a superb manner by Miss May Toombs as soprano, Mrs. Thyes as alto, Mr. A. H. Smith as tenor, and Mr. Scovil as bass. "The Knight's Farewell," by a male quartette consisting of Messrs. Smith, Fassett, Scovil and Lindsay, was one of the very finest things of the evening. It is not often that any audience has such a treat.

Miss Hattie Lewis' reading of 'The Song of the Camp' was excellently done. She has an admirable voice, and read in such a clear and smooth tone that even those furthest off in the large audience must have heard every word.

The solo "Peace on the Deep," by R. H. Lindsay, was worth the admission in itself. His voice is a noble one. It seemed to have been made for the piece he sung. After a most enthusiastic encore he gave "Widow Machree," as he only can.

"Peggy and Meggy" was then given by Esther Evans and Miss Atchinson, of the Bishop's School, with Charley Williams as the father before he became a drum major, and Alfred Holladay as the father after he was promoted.

"The Clang of the Wooden Shoon," by the girls of the school who compose the choir of Trinity church, was a splendid success.

All the music of the programme was under the direction of Mrs. C. T. Bender and Miss Quaiffe, the accompaniment to the "Sunrise" Quartette being finely done by Miss Marzen. The finest thing of the evening was the "Sculptor's Studio," under the management of Mrs. Jenvey and Miss Gertrude Hatch. Eleven figures, artistically grouped, and consisting of "Devotion" by Persia Bishop, "Rienzi" by Blitz Paxton, "The Shinty Player by Chas. Fassett, "Cupid Disarmed" by Mrs. Lisle Jamison and little Julia Lewis, "Nydia" by Miss Irene MaLotte, "Memory" by Laura Colwell, "Pompei" by Mrs. Thyes, "Vanity" by Annie Crutcher, "Cinderella" by Grace Williams, "Lavori" by little Marcia Bacon and Allie Kinkead and the "German Statue" by Zöie Clark, formed the collection. The success of the evening was largely due to Mr. Conkling for the exceedingly able manner in which he and his aids managed the stage and scenery.

Some Questions of Grammar.

RENO, March 1, 1881.

Editor Gazette:—Two or three of us had a dispute last night over some points in grammar. (1) Is it correct to say "He is feeling badly," or "He is feeling bad?" (2) Also, should one say "It was well got up," or "It was well gotten up?" INQUIRER.

[The GAZETTE does not profess to be an authority on nice questions of grammar, but the above queries are easily answered. In regard to the first question the rule is plain: If a verb is to be qualified, use an adverb; if a noun or pronoun, use an adjective. If you wish to convey the idea that a person's sense of touch is imperfect, you will correctly say that he feels badly; if you speak of the subjective state of his feelings, you may properly say he feels bad. Similarly you would say of a man: "He looked fierce," if you referred to his disposition; and "he looked fiercely," if you referred to the transitory expression of the individual's countenance, the manner of his looking.

As to "gotten," it is used by many persons from a notion that "got" can not be correctly substituted for it. The objection to "gotten" is that it is antiquated, like "boughten," which has gone almost entirely out of use. "Got" is used as the past participle in accordance with what philologists call the "strong" conjugation, always to be preferred to the "weak" conjugation, an additional syllable to form the past participle. "Gotten" has, moreover, to many persons an affected sound. Either "got" or "gotten" can be correctly used as the past participle, according to the best authorities. "Got" is generally used by many good writers, and thetendency of the language is to drop "gotten" entirely. —ED. GAZETTE.]

A New Pumping System.

P. A. Humbert, of the Bullion mine, has invented a plan for pumping mines which does away with the clumsy pump rod now in use on the Comstock. This extract from the S. F. Bulletin's description of the invention gives its leading features: "By the new system there extends from the top to the bottom of the mine an endless iron rope, which at the various pumping stations passed around large pulleys or wheels, fifteen feet in diameter. To these pulleys are attached shafts connected with and driving the pistons of the pump. The rope, being set in motion by the engine, as in the case of one of the cable street railroads, imparts motion to all the larger wheels from the top to the bottom of the mine, as in the case of the pulleys over which the street cable rolls, and these in turn work the pumps. There is thus avoided the immense weight of the pump rod now in use, the only resistance to be overcome being that of the friction of the pulleys and the weight of water lifted.

Wrinkled Faces.

It is a painful sight to see young ladies in their teens with wrinkled and prematurely old faces; nevertheless it is quite common, and to any one who observes the tendency of the times the reason is very apparent. Owing to flaming advertisements and bogus certificates, in which are used the names of eminent physicians and chemists, the unsuspecting and credulous have been induced to use some of the so-called liquid beautifiers, all of which are known be positively injurious, and if used for any length of time will destroy the complexion, so that it will be next to impossible to restore it. Mothers should be very careful to see that their daughters do not use these preparations, but ask for and obtain Slaven's Harmless Yosemite Face Powder, the only harmless beautifier. A TRAGIC FATE.

Death of the Young Huntress of Wayne County, Pa.

From the Elmira Gazette.

A fearful tale is told in the Port Jervis Union of the fate of Lottie Merill, the young huntress of Wayne county, Pa. According to this account she met a most tragic death on the 8th of February, being attacked in her hut by six bears, killed and eaten by them, and her body burned with the carcasses of some of them in her cabin. A party of hunters, it is said, at the close of that day found her cabin still burning, and the proofs of the horrible death she had died. It appears that she had been hunting that day, and had killed a fine buck deer, which, after removing the entrails, she had dragged home on the snow. Six hungry bears, drawn by the smell of blood, had followed the trail to her hut, and after devouring the carcass of the deer attacked the huntress, killing her and devouring her body. The girl had evidently made a heroic defence. An examination of the carcasses of the six bears in the cabin showed that she must have killed two of them before being overpowered. The carcass of one bear had fallen against the closed door and imprisoned them all within the cabin, which took fire and burned the others to death. In the cabin was found one of the huntress's heavy boots with the foot still in it, a bent hunting knife near the bones, and the antlers of the deer she had brought home, which with the carcasses of the bears furnished a complete key to the mystery. Her funeral took place on Wednesday the 9th. At least 300 people were present at the funeral, and the old preacher, William Budwick, preached the sermon, relating the story of her death and extolling her bravery and virtue to the skies. The remains were buried near her burned cabin, and over her grave were placed a pair of antlers and a hemlock slab with this rude epitaph:

Lottie Merrill lays hear she dident know wot it was to be afeard but she has had her last tussel with the bars and theyve scooped her she was a good girl and she is now in heaven. It took six bars to get away with her. She was only 18 years old.

All the Difference in the World.

From the Port Jarvis Gazette.

This story reminds us of our experience with an eminent dominie of Brooklyn, Long Island, whom we once interviewed, while on a paper of that city. We walked into the parlor and the minister presently entered. "Ah," said he, "you have come for religious consolation. Let us pray."

"Oh, no," said we. It is for the purpose of interviewing you."

"Well," he responded, "in that case, let us have a cigar."

THE BOSS!

Edison Outdone.

Over 150,000 Sold.

Patented April 2, 1878, June 11, 1878, and July 8, 1879.

Boss Coffee, Tea Pots & Urns.

It is the Boss! Why? Because it produces Boss Coffee.

It makes rich flavored Coffee! Why? Because all the aroma and food are retained.

It beats them all! Why? Because it saves 100 per cent over boiled Coffee, which is not Coffee, but bitter water. Second—Because it saves 50 per cent over any other method of making Coffee. Third—Because it saves eggs and trouble of clarifying. Fourth—Because it makes Coffee as clear as red wine. Fifth—Because it takes only two minutes to make Boss Coffee.

The Boss works as well on Tea, and saves 25 to 50 per cent.

While Edison may furnish light to millions, the BOSS will assuredly give health to all who use it. Thousands have become dyspeptic and bilious from drinking boiled coffee or BITTER WATER, (boiled coffee is not coffee, but bitter water POISONED with coffee nicotine). Stop drinking boiled coffee. Make your coffee as NATURE ORDAINED, and restore your health. Many inventors have racked their brain to furnish the human family with a practical method of making coffee At last the HAPPY RESULT has been accomplished in the production of very cheap and simple Pots and Urns celebrated as the BOSS.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.— After thoroughly testing the BOSS COFFEE POT, we, the undersigned, fully endorse the same as the best method of making Coffee we have ever seen. Besides saving eggs, it will save a large per cent. of the Coffee. It produces Coffee as clear as wine, which is much stronger, and has a more delicious flavor than any coffee made by any other process.

DR. SPINNEY

NO. 11 KEARNEY STREET.

San Francisco, Cal.

Treat all Chronic and Special Diseases

YOUNG MEN

WHO MAY BE SUFFERING FROM the effects of youthful follies or indiscretion, will do well to avail themselves of this, the greatest boon ever said at the alter of suffering humanity. DR. SPINNEY will guarantee to forfeit $500 for every case of Seminal Weakness or private disease of any kind or character which he undertakes and fails to cure.

MIDDLE-AGED MEN.

There are many at the age of thirty and sixty who are troubled with too frequent evacuations of the bladder, often accompanied by a slight smarting or burning sensation and a weakening of the system in a manner the patient cannot account for. On examining the urinary deposits a ropy sediment will often be found, and some small particles of albumen will appear, or the color will be of a thin milkish hue, again changing to a dark and torpid appearance. There are many men who die of this difficulty, ignorant of the cause, which is the second stage of seminal weakness. Dr. S. will guarantee a perfect cure in all such cases, and a healthy restoration of the genito-urinary organs.

Office Hours—10 to 4 and 6 to 8. Sundays from 10 to 11 A. M. Consultation Free. Thorough examination and advice $5.

P. S. For private diseases of short stand ing a full course of medicines sufficient for a cure, with necessary instructions, will be sent to any address on receipt of Ten Dollars.
